Quinta da Vila Maria is a former wine merchant’s manor house and vineyard located in the beautiful and unspoilt São Mamede Natural Park, near to Portalegre. Built around 100 years ago, with Art Deco influences, the house has been sympathetically restored and now provides holiday apartments with modern and comfortable facilities, whilst still retaining the original character.

Each self-catering apartment is light and spacious and offers a double bedroom with queen sized bed, an en-suite bathroom with walk-in shower, a living/dining area with satellite television and Internet connection and a compact kitchen with fridge, hob and microwave/grill. The apartments are furnished to a high standard and contain all you could wish for a comfortable holiday.

The house is in a peaceful location on the edge of the friendly village of Reguengo and is set in 3 hectares of traditional vineyard and pasture with many olive and fruit trees. It is ideally situated for exploring the São Mamede Park, discovering historic towns and castles or simply relaxing at the Quinta under a warm, blue sky and enjoying the calm and restful atmosphere.
