
Campo de Golfe do Botado

ABOUT

No major work was needed to transform this site, particularly blessed by nature, into a pleasant 9-hole course, stretching along the ocean shoreline.

Six lakes and large bunkers present a stiff challenge to the expertise of golfers on this links course running parallel to the dunes of a sandy beach. The backdrop against which they play is marked by the blending of the sea with the deep blue sky, a scene dominated by the imposing headland of Cabo Carvoeiro stretching out into the Atlantic Ocean and with the Berlengas Islands Nature Reserve in the distance.

The Atlântico Golfe Hotel offers its guests many pleasant hours spent bathing in its hot and cold water swimming-pools, as well as a health club, a children's playground, bars and restaurants, tennis courts and a football pitch.

In Peniche, you can watch the colourful spectacle of the fishing boats arriving in the harbour to unload their catches. The best way to appreciate the freshness, quality and variety of the fish that are brought ashore from our seas is simply to taste it. The raw material is so good that it does not require any great culinary sophistication in its preparation. Whether you eat it boiled or grilled with a sprinkling of Portuguese olive-oil, it is absolutely incomparable.
