
Museu Rafael Bordalo Pinheiro

ABOUT

This is a biographical and monographic museum, dedicated to the life and work of Rafael Bordalo Pinheiro (1846-1905), an important personality in the cultural, artistic and political circles of Lisbon in the second half of the 19C.

Having left behind a wide variety of different artistic works, especially in the fields of drawings and ceramics, he achieved great fame as a caricaturist and sharp and incisive critic of his contemporary society.

The museum has the most complete collection of Portuguese ceramics produced by Bordalo Pinheiro - with his characteristic taste for hypernaturalism - as well as an extensive collection of his painting, original drawings and publications.

Contacts

Campo Grande, 382 1700-097 Lisboa
Telephone: +351 21 755 04 68
Fax: +351 21 757 18 58
E-mail: museu.bordalopinheiro@cm-lisboa.pt
Website: <http://www.museubordalopinheiro.pt>

Characteristics and Services

Shops
Guided Tours

Timetable

10am - 6pm (Tuesday to Sunday) Closed: Monday and Holidays
