
Museu do Fado

ABOUT

The Fado Museum provides a tribute to the special form of singing and music that came into being in the popular neighbourhoods of Lisbon in the 18th century and to the men and women who have dedicated their voices and feelings to its development.

Come and discover the history of Fado through a succession of different atmospheres recreated by audiovisual means and through a rich collection of records, photographs, films, props, instruments and different objects.

The museum has a documentation centre, auditorium, shop and café.
