
Praia de Buarcos

ABOUT

The Mondego Cape appears as a sweeping extension of the Serra da Boa Viagem mountains and serves to protect the large sandy expanse of Buarcos Beach from strong northerly winds thereby creating a calmer sea that has become popular for windsurfing.

Previously a calm fishing town, nowadays tourism has become the main livelihood in Buarcos turning it into a lively town with its focal point on the Avenida Marginal coast road, where the town meets the sea.

Contacts

Buarcos - Figueira da Foz

Characteristics and Services

Outdoor parking

Bar

Average seawater temperature in summer (°C): 16 °C

Restaurant

Security or Surveillance

EEC Blue Flag

Sunshade rental

Showers

Activities

Windsurfing

Accessibility

Accessible beach
