ABOUT

Miguel Torga House Museum

The Miguel Torga House Museum was inaugurated on 12 August 2007. Its main aim is to provide the visitor with knowledge of the Poet's work as shown through one of the most emblematic places of his life, namely his own home.

Miguel Torga, the greatest name in 20th century Portuguese literature, lived in this house since the early 1950s, until January 1995. This space offers in particular cultural activities for the general public, guided tours and educational programmes.
