Within the walls of São Jorge Castle, stands the noble Solar Do Castelo with two floors and an attic. Solar Do Castelo is also known as the Kitchen's Mansion as it is constructed where the old kitchens of Royal Palace once stood. This XVIII Century Palace has several medieval remains, which likely belonged to outbuildings of the Palace, an example of which is the cistern. Mixing elements of Portuguese XVIII Century construction (Pombalina) with others less restricting elements, Solar Do Castelo is located within the walls of São Jorge Castle, one of the most beautiful areas of Lisbon and the birthplace of the city.
