Herdade da matinha, a family estate covering 110 hectares, lies 3kms from the village of cercal, on portugal's unspoilt alentejo coast.

The estate lays amongst picturesque hills and valleys where silence is golden, only occasionally interrupted by overflying birds and grazing wildlife.

The houses on the estate are converted farmers' buildings and barns.

In all, there are 20 rooms, all individually designed and tastefully decorated.

For the more active, the lush and green countryside is perfect for gentle strolls and rambling. Matinha also has a stable with 8 horses on which guests can amble through mediterranean woodland to the nearby beaches. Many of our friends opt to take a picnic hamper along too, prepared by our kitchen staff.

Once back at matinha, there are classes in yoga and pilates, and body massages for those who love feeling pampered.

Matinha is also a stone's throw away from rota vicentina, a total 350 kms of footpaths of breath-taking beauty, where one feels completely at one with nature. This is a walker's and cyclists paradise, as it is for birdwatchers.

Countryside and Coast

Also along the way is the fishing village of Porto Covo, the coastal village of Vila Nova de Milfontes, and for the more intrepid, Carrapateira and Sagres further south.

Beach-lovers have got easy access to the expanses of nearby Malhão and Aivados, with miles of coastline, great surfing and clean seawater (much better and healthier than the Mediterranean sea).

Late in the day, after a shower and getting ready, there is the pinnacle that makes Matinha what it is. The gastronomy. All food is locally sourced and homemade, and the wine list includes some of the best Portugal has to offer at very reasonable prices. The atmosphere is informal and friendly, the music very chilled, and the meals exquisite. Some dinners at Matinha have been known to start at 20h and only finish after 2 a.m.

Herdade da Matinha is the authentic Alentejo experience. The author of this text knows; I have been visiting Matinha for the past 12 years and I have fallen in love with it.

And so will you.

Quinta da Eira Velha is a Rural Tourism cottage located on the banks of Castelo do Bode Lake, in the heart of the rural village of Aldeia do Mato.

The Casa de Campo uses the facilities of a traditional restored familiar house from the beginning of the 20th century, retaining many of its original features, whilst providing the comfort of modern day living.

The rooms offer views overlooking Castelo do Bode Lake, the countryside and the village church.

Breakfast is served every morning, and includes an à la carte selection of yogurts, cereals, toasts, fruits, beverages and fresh made bread in the house wooden oven.

Guests can take advantage of a kitchenette, wifi and private parking.

There is an array of different activities guests can enjoy straight from the farmhouse door. These include visits to Antas and activities like canoeing, rowing, windsurf, waterskiing, wakeboard, fishing and cycling.

In a range of 20km guests can explore places like Abrantes and its castle, the region of Templars, Tomar and its magnificent Convent of Christo, Unesco World Heritage, the castle of Almourol and the charming village of Constância. Fátima Sanctuary is just one hour away.

Lisbon international airport is at a distance of 140kms.

Inspired by the history of a place and of a people, Luz - Charming Houses, located in Fatima, Portugal, offers 15 rooms with a simple and intimate decoration, a concept of a "small village", which architecture was inspired by the ancient villages in the region of Fatima.

At the "Mother House", or common area, we can find the reception desk, a small grocery store with products dating back to an ancient but not forgotten Portugal, the living room and the dining room, both of which have a fireplace, a terrace and an "honesty bar".

In the outdoor area within the trees and through the smell of the flowers, we find Luz Senses. Set in a natural cave, here we specialize in natural therapies that show the history and local knowledge, providing the visitors with various therapies and massages in a mystical place, offering a once in a lifetime experience.

The outdoor areas include other less common spaces, such as the sheep shelter, a centennial cistern and even a hermitage where our visitors may simply reflect and meditate, yet the perfect venue for special and intimate events.

A Casa da Portela de Sampriz é uma casa senhorial de raiz quinhentista, aninhada na encosta do Monte de Santa Rita a meio caminho entre a vila de Ponte da Barca e o mítico castelo da Nóbrega de Fernão Magalhães.

Esta Casa senhorial constitui um conjunto arquitetónico harmonioso, que resulta de extensas obras de beneficiação e ampliação efetuadas no século XVIII, data da construção da Capela dedicada a Santo António, do pátio central e do imponente portão de entrada. Ainda hoje, no piso térreo da casa e em dependências agrícolas anexas podem observar-se vários vestígios quinhentistas. A Quinta, os espigueiros, a eira, os campos verdejantes as árvores seculares marcam o tempo da prosperidade agrícola desta casa e da região do Minho.

Maria Leonor Pereira de Lacerda Tavares Barreto e Alberto Tavares Barreto os atuais proprietários da Casa da Portela de Sampriz, procederam a obras profundas de restauro e renovação, para adaptar a casa e a quinta a Agroturismo. A casa disponibiliza para os hóspedes quatro quartos, complementados com um vasto conjunto de valências que convidam a uma estada com qualidade e conforto.

Motivos não faltam para experienciar a Casa da Portela de Sampriz: desde a afamada gastronomia e vinhos da região; às tradicionais aldeias e brandas de montanha, passando pelo inigualável Parque Nacional da Peneda Gerês, são inúmeros as razões para descobrir a Casa da Portela de Sampriz.
