This well kept secret is situated in the “Parque Natural do Sudoeste Alentejano”, land of gentile rolling prairies bathed by the blue sea and unruly beaches. It is this protected Natural habitat that now welcomes “Casas da Lupa”.

The purity of the local architecture on the outside combined with the modern construction and comforts on the inside create a welcome surprise to all those that visit us. “Casas da Lupa” is made up of three separate building that house 4 Master Suites, 4 Suites and 3 Double Rooms and are surrounded by a large garden and pool.

In the first building we have four Master Suites, three of which have a private courtyard and small plunge pool. No two suites are alike but all four share a countryside view of the sea and wild flowers. In the second building we have the 4 Suites, all of which have their own verandas and fireplaces these large suites overlook the main garden and pool. Our third and final building is our Main house where we have our breakfast / living room, a TV area, a guest WC, our reception Office and our three double rooms all of which have a small veranda and all overlook the garden.

The 'Monte Barranco da Baía', Holidays Cottages, is located in the 'Parque Natural da Costa Vicentina' in southwest Portugal. Visitors can enjoy the tranquility of the place and relax in the swimming pond after a day on the beach or coming back from trekking along the coast, two ways of enjoying Europe's most protected coastline.

It is also an ideal stopover in 'Rota Vicentina', the new pedestrian route that passes nearby.

The two traditional style houses equipped with every comfort are within 2 km of the coastline, in a very quiet agricultural area with good accesses.

The houses are equipped with solar water heating systems. Sewage is treated by phyto-purification (reed beds) before being reused for irrigation. There is the possibility of separating garbage for recycling as well as compost for the vegetable garden.

Four miles north, the picturesque village of Odeceixe and to the south the town of Aljezur, built in the foothills of its Moorish castle, invite to experience the local cuisine.
