ÓBIDOS WOOD VILLAS is a Rural Tourism unit with an innovative concept in the western region of Portugal. With a modern, simple and eco-friendly construction, it harmoniously combines the comfort of the wood with the rural landscape where it is located.

The four Villas, with a T2 typology and fully equipped, are ideal for families or groups (up to 16 people) and offer various facilities that will make you feel at home. Besides the reception, the unit has swimming pool, jacuzzi, parking and bicycles, all free. There is free Wi-Fi throughout the area and guests can pick products from the organic garden whenever they want.

ÓBIDOS WOOD VILLAS not only presents the ideal location for families who want to explore the region or just enjoy a few days of rest, it also provides activities and experiences that will make your holiday unforgettable ... what are you waiting to visit us?
