Herdade da matinha, a family estate covering 110 hectares, lies 3kms from the village of cercal, on portugal's unspoilt alentejo coast.

The estate lays amongst picturesque hills and valleys where silence is golden, only occasionally interrupted by overflying birds and grazing wildlife.

The houses on the estate are converted farmers' buildings and barns.

In all, there are 20 rooms, all individually designed and tastefully decorated.

For the more active, the lush and green countryside is perfect for gentle strolls and rambling. Matinha also has a stable with 8 horses on which guests can amble through mediterranean woodland to the nearby beaches. Many of our friends opt to take a picnic hamper along too, prepared by our kitchen staff.

Once back at matinha, there are classes in yoga and pilates, and body massages for those who love feeling pampered.

Matinha is also a stone's throw away from rota vicentina, a total 350 kms of footpaths of breath-taking beauty, where one feels completely at one with nature. This is a walker's and cyclists paradise, as it is for birdwatchers.

Also along the way is the fishing village of Porto Covo, the coastal village of vila nova de milfontes, and for the more intrepid, Carrapateira and Sagres further south.

Beach-lovers have got easy access to the expanses of nearby malhao and aivados, with miles of coastline, great surfing and clean seawater (much better and healthier than the mediterranean sea).

Late in the day, after a shower and getting ready, there is the pinnacle that makes matinha what it is. The gastronomy. All food is locally sourced and homemade, and the wine list includes some of the best portugal has to offer at very reasonable prices. The atmosphere is informal and friendly, the music very chilled, and the meals exquisite. Some dinners at matinha have been known to start at 20h and only finish after 2 a.m.

Herdade da matinha is the authentic alentejo experience. The author of this text knows; i have been visiting matinha for the past 12 years and i have fallen in love with it.

And so will you.

Quinta de Santo António do Cardal is a rural property of the XIX century, located on the left bank of the Mondego River, upstream from its mouth, with the city of Figueira da Foz on the horizon.

In addition to their main business, agriculture (production of wine, olive oil, cereals, fruit and cork), served as a retreat for leisure owners and friends, using much of the local population. As a reference in the region, contains political secrets kept by time.

Recently restored, it meets the tourist function, allowing guests to enjoy a unique landscape that breathes peace.

The house is located on a property of about 10 hectares, lined by oaks, cedars, pines, olive trees and trees fruit, where water furrows the land between vegetation and stones. Freedom of paths that run allows you to enjoy beautiful walks or outdoor sports.
