On a short distance of the medieval town of Monsaraz, this charming small hotel Monte Saraz is situated in the heart of a magnificent ancient olive grove and near to the huge Alqueva Lake. The area is endowed with sunshine and a particular climate that contributes to the creations of great wines for which the Alentejo region is so well known.

Situated in a beautifully restored eighteen century monte (a typical Alentejo farming estate), Monte Saraz is a nice blend of traditional architecture and contemporary design, offering repose and quality during your stay in comfortable, separate farmhouses or in suites located in the main building. The houses give direct access to gardens dotted by ponds covered in water-lilies and to a citrus fruit orchard.

In this residence you can find tranquillity at any time of year, be it by the warmth of a good hearth or swimming in the swimming-pool shaped by the arches of an old olive oil press. Go on walking or bicycle tours, visit prehistoric monuments or wine cellars, discover neighbouring villages or go sailing and enjoy the beauty of the lakes formed by the waters of Alqueva. At night, you can have dinner under the starry sky, close to the swimming-pool, having as scenery the illuminated medieval castle town of Monsaraz and, as musical accompaniment, the chirrup of crickets and cicadas.

The Manor House "Ponces de Carvalho", also known as the Manor House of the "Counts of Vilar Seco", was built in the 18th century and is situated in the old village of Vilar Seco, covered by vineyards and pine trees in the Heart of the Delimited Dão

Wine Region. This manor house has "french gardens" as well as a large leisure area, with a small lake made of granite and relaxation spaces. At short distance, you can find two thermal resorts - Caldas da Felgueira and Alcafache - specialized in the treatment of problems related to respiratory, musculoskeletal and rheumatoid health diseases.

In the nearby city of Viseu, there are places of interest and attractions to visit, namely the Grão Vasco Museum, the Almeida Moreira House-Museum, the Cathedral and the "Misericórdia" Church, as well as other manor houses and secular buildings of great architectonic beauty. Golf players have at their disposal a 27-hole course (Montebelo), just a few miles away from the city. The "Dão Wine Institute" is a place worth visiting, where you'll be able to taste the best wines of this region.

Welcome to Sintra!!

The Villa das Rosas is a small estate in the center of Sintra, with a 3500m2 area. Its edification dates the XIX century and maintains the spirit of its time while ensuring the comfort and the necessary conditions for a modern tourist operation that offers a pleasant stay all year round. The place was completely restored, maintaining the same charm and delicacy of the original design in the home, garden and surrounding areas. We hope you can fully enjoy all the natural beauty of Sintra - UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1992 - known for its extensive green spaces and impressive historic monuments.

Quinta do Cabouco is a manor-house built in the 18th century, restored and enlarged in 2003, with care, to maintain its old look. It was licenced by the local Tourism Authority as being one of the best B&B (bed and breakfast) houses of Madeira Island. Lovingly decorated, it is a real home from home with all its particular attention to detail and comfort. Located on a hill, overlooking the widespread of the blue ocean, where sunsets are incomparable, is just in the middle of the sunny coast, which permits you being in mere 20 minutes, whether you go to Funchal or to Calheta beach. Access to every other part of the island is quick and easy due to the new tunnels. Around the house, there's a large organic garden, certified by Ecocert-Portugal, Lda, Where it grows fruit-trees and vegetables. Quinta do Cabouco is five minutes away from the beach, by car, and one of the sunniest and most comfortable places to live in terms of weather condition.
