If your dream is to have a rural, intimate and real holiday in a typically Portuguese country house with large exquisite rooms, where comfort prevails, Quinta da Palmeira is your best option.

Our country house, surrounded by orange and olive groves, dates back to 1890 and was recently totally renovated and transformed into a modern traditionally Portuguese family-run complex (*). Originally, the Farm was a property with orchards and an olive press. It is located in the green heart of Portugal's central region and very close to the enchanting historical village of Piódão.

Come and meet us and enjoy Portuguese nature and culture, tranquillity and all the pleasures life has to offer. At the end of the day, enjoy one of our regional dishes and a nice glass of wine in front of the marvellous mountain landscape.

Your host, Jack Brouns, will be very happy to greet you.
