A Tourist Guide to World Heritage Sites I - In the heart of Portugal

Consult the leaflet concerning the 4 routes we've specially created to help you discover this region. Nestled in the southwest corner of Europe, we call this region "the heart of Portugal".

Many of the key events surrounding the birth of Portugal - the country with the oldest borders in Europe - are associated to this zone. The region has a rich history and brims with a plethora of myths and legends. Its exceptional importance - the theme underlying these routes - is demonstrated by the fact that it houses three of Portugal's most important UNESCO World Heritage monuments, in an area spanning little over 90km².

Porto and the North

A Tourist Guide to World Heritage Sites II - in the North of Portugal

People have lived in northern Portugal for centuries. A place where Atlantic and Mediterranean cultures come together, the region is particularly rich in cultural and natural heritage. Indeed, this Portuguese region has 4 of UNESCO's 18 World Heritage sites: two historical centres: Porto and Guimarães, which received the status in 1996 and 2001 respectively, the Vale do Coa archaeological sites, listed in 1998, and the cultural landscape of the Alto Douro Wine-growing Region, listed 2001. To help you get to know them better, Turismo de Portugal has published a series of World Heritage Tourist Itineraries, making it easier for you to organise your visit to Portugal.

Porto and the North: The essence of Portugal

Portugal was born in the North and the rich cultural heritage of the region doesn't ignore so noble and ancient origins. Tradition, culture, history, architecture, gastronomy and wine, landscape, hospitality and the joy of their people are the attributes of a unique region.

Whether in leisure activities, like golf and spas, or business, this region is acquiring a huge prominence and a peculiar charm. One who visits Portugal takes with oneself more than pictures and memories.
