Herdade da Matinha, a family estate covering 110 hectares, lies 3kms from the village of Cercal, on Portugal's unspoilt Alentejo coast.

The estate lays amongst picturesque hills and valleys where silence is golden, only occasionally interrupted by overflying birds and grazing wildlife.

The houses on the estate are converted farmers' buildings and barns.

In all, there are 20 rooms, all individually designed and tastefully decorated.

For the more active, the lush and green countryside is perfect for gentle strolls and rambling. Matinha also has a stable with 8 horses on which guests can amble through Mediterranean woodland to the nearby beaches. Many of our friends opt to take a picnic hamper along too, prepared by our kitchen staff.

Once back at Matinha, there are classes in yoga and Pilates, and body massages for those who love feeling pampered.

Matinha is also a stone's throw away from Rota Vicentina, a total 350 kms of footpaths of breath-taking beauty, where one feels completely at one with nature. This is a walker's and cyclist's paradise, as it is for birdwatchers.

Also along the way is the fishing village of Porto Covo, the coastal village of Vila Nova de Milfontes, and for the more intrepid, Carrapateira and Sagres further south.

Beach-lovers have got easy access to the expanses of nearby Malhão and Aivados, with miles of coastline, great surfing and clean seawater (much better and healthier than the Mediterranean sea).

Companhia das Culturas is an a organic farm in the south east point of Algarve, on the S. Bartolomeu village and the Nature Reserve of Castro Marim, just 1,5km far from the beach Praia Verde. The houses were adapted by Arch. Pedro Ressano Garcia to receive visitors [9 rooms and 4 apartments] in a simultaneously sophisticated and rural ambience. In keeping with the environment, solar energy is used as well as residual waters and although there is no television nor music, but provide an Internet Wireless System. In the Cork-Box, an old garage for a threshing machine that now is completely lined with cork, we offer daily yoga classes. In the Hamam we propose a diverse menu of wellness treatments and health. Finally, in our restaurant - Alma Brava - we create a gastronomy in symbiosis with our organic vegetable garden, the fish from the coast and local meat, which we call the Portuguese diet.

We offer special conditions for groups and retreats.

HOUSE

Our door is always open to welcome those who arrive with the same joy with which we would run to our grandparents arms when we were little. Our grandfather, an "old sea dog", Joaquim Modesto de Brito, known to all as "the champ", was the foundation of this project. So many memories inhabit these walls and grounds that we, the grandchildren, couldn't allow them to get lost. This is how Casa Modesta was born, combining rural tourism with a contemporary feel, manifested in nine rooms with private patios. There is also a garden with a section for organically grown vegetables and a solarium where time flows with the tides.

EXPERIENCES

To the Algarve summer, with sand in it's feet, we have added the daily routines of those who make this way of life a lifestyle, from gathering clams to baking bread to the harvesting and drying of fruits. We catch a ride on a traditional boat, practice birdwatching, support the local nature reserve, and when night falls we turn our verandas into a planetarium and watch the stars. When the body requires rest we surrender ourselves to wellness rituals, taking advantage of the natural properties of local oliver, almonds, fleur de sel and algae. Some may call it a "vacation", we call it "culture".

PLACE

Our secret: a family house opening its doors to tourism in an almost unknown land, facing the sea and in the heart of the Ria Formosa Natural Park, considered one of Portugal's seven wonders. We may sound biased if we say that from Casa Modesta you witness the best morning in all the Algarve, but from here we can watch the migration of birds, the practice of shellfish gathering or the harvesting of salt, and everyday we are astonished by the small miracles that Nature performs.

ARCHITECTURE

From the ground up we built a house using the traditional knowledge and architectural culture, the local people and materials. In the Casa Chã, we translated ancestral legacies to a contemporary language, creating and feeding social and economical dynamics connected to local art and crafts. Cemented in the memory of family and place, PAR consolidated this project in the Casa Modesta prototype.

CASA DE SANTO ANTÃO is a familiar project. It wasn't born from the need to rebuild a building, but from the wish to preserve the history of the family. It's a house built by the owner's grandfather, where two generations of família ANTÃO were born. A house where the walls tell histories, where each stone was hand placed, where the wood oven was artfully built, as well as all the house structure. Opuses that exist today in order to be deservedly admired. The strong will to revitalize a familiar space, highlighting itself and its story, was so fundamental that determined its owners and descendants' change from the capital city to the rural paradise. Casa de Santo Antão is, above all, a family home with its doors open for friends.

The beauty of the landscape surrounding Quinta Manhães D' Ouro is impossible to describe. The extended horizon, the woods, the vines, the neighbouring villages, make the Quinta favourable to contemplation, quiet pace and serenity.

The Quinta delimits an area of approximately 16.500m<sup>2</sup>. This space is split between hospitality structures and the outside gardens, fruit, olive and chestnut trees, and the vines. The main house is divided in two floors. The 1st floor accommodates 6 double-rooms with private bathroom (one of which is Disabled Equipped). The ground floor area allocates a restaurant, snack bar and lounge.

Along with the gardens, in the outside area one finds a second building connected to the main house, named Mundo Rural (Rural World). In this space one finds a bedroom suite of a rather fantastic view, along with the winery, barbecue area with terrace and garden. To your comfort, the Quinta offers a swimming pool and jacuzzi expecting to make your staying more pleasant and reinvigorating.
