The Palácio da Lousã, formerly known as Palácio da Viscondessa do Espinhal (XVIII), is a Boutique Hotel in Portugal, located in the centre of the town. This Palace, classified as Historical Heritage, hosted the Duke of Wellington and his troops after the victorious battle of Foz de Arouce in 1811. Nowadays, it combines an atmosphere of charm with all the comfort and technology of a modern hotel.

The town is surrounded by the magnificent Serra da Lousã, ideal for outdoor activities and the observation of wildlife, mainly the wild boars and the deers. In the hills, there are the medieval Arouce Castle, the Ermidas, the schist stone Villages and the reservoirs of the ancient Real Neveiro, where the ice was stored to be sent afterwards to the King's cellar in Lisbon.

The town is also near the famous roman ruins of Conímbriga. The Hotel offers 46 rooms. The Palace interiors respect the typical environment of those days houses, classic and antique. The New Wing, in perfect harmony with the Palace, presents a decoration with a more contemporaneous combination of colours. All the rooms have broadband internet access. Thoroughly restored, the living rooms in the noble floor are privileged social spaces that will invite you to relax. The modular air-conditioned rooms for business meetings or social events accommodate up to 300 people. All the meeting and living rooms are covered by Wi-fi technology.

The restaurant "A Viscondessa" will do full justice to local flavours. The Bar has an atmosphere of charm and magnificent views over the hills of the Serra da Lousã, and the formal gardens embracing the swimming pool.

We look forward to seeing you.

Quintal de Além Ribeiro is located in Ceira dos Vales, a typical rural village of Beira Litoral, which together with Ceira river, the beautiful green valleys and the cultivated lands, offers its inhabitants a life of constant contact with nature. The fields and hills surrounding it offer numerous possibilities, not only for walking, resting, leisure, contemplation and contact with water, but also swimming and fishing.

The House's architectural beauty, the comfort conveyed by the rustic decor, the quietness and the friendliness and hospitality of the hosts will undoubtedly provide moments to remember.

The house has six large-size rooms, two of them being full suites (bedroom, living room, bathroom and kitchenette), The decor apart from providing maximum comfort, also represents themes, closely connected with the region (hunting, agriculture, music, romance, etc.). Two of the rooms have been fully adapted in order to accommodate disabled persons.

The Quintal de Além Ribeiro, has much to offer; regional specialities for breakfast and other meals, contact with local activities such as the grape harvest, wine and spirit making and the traditional ritual of slaughtering the fattened pig.
